DIRECTIONS: Enter town of Wakaw on #2 highway. Turn east (at the "Nelson Beach" sign) onto 3rd Street North. Follow this road through town, across the railway tracks and to the STOP sign (about 1 mile). From the STOP sign keep going east (about another 1 mile). Turn left at the black iron gates with the Green Grove Camp Sign.

ACTIVITIES: Swimming, fishing, games, campfires, canoeing, overnight tenting, sports & hikes are all supervised activities that follow daily lessons in language, religion, dancing, singing & crafts. Safety glasses have been donated and will be worn by everyone fishing. Please bring barbless hooks only.

For cooler, wet weather, campers can bring board games, card games & books. Everyone participates in the daily flagpole ritual & morning & evening prayers. ALL campers are expected to do their duties in the dining hall and washrooms as scheduled.

PERSONAL HYGIENE: Please impress upon your child the need for extra personal cleanliness. Being in close quarters in heat or rain makes it necessary to use the soap & toothbrush even more. VISITATIONS: Parents are invited to visit on Sunday. You may sign your child out for a portion of the day. Please see staff member.

FOOD DONATIONS: Closer to the start of camp, we will be sending out a list of non-perishable food items needed and will be requesting families to sign up to donate. This will help offset our food costs.

We encourage all family members and friends to join the church service before the concert. There will be a luncheon served for a fee. Children are encouraged to wear a Ukrainian costume for the concert.
